

Annie Suggs
Chaplain

Annie L. Suggs is a native of Farmville, North Carolina, and has resided in New York for the past 51 years. Her love and passion for working and sharing in community outreach through volunteer service started at an early age. She served with the Ecclesia Ministries – Marcus Garvey Park street ministry, New York City, 2016-2018, bringing Christian worship service and lunch to the park weekly. She serves on the Housing Works, Inc. HealthCare Board of Directors.

She is an Ordained & Licensed Interfaith Reverend at One Spirit Interfaith Seminary and Unity Fellowship Church Movement, a Social Justice Ministry. She graduated from the United States Army Sergeant Majors Academy and holds a Bachelor of Science in Organizational Management from Nyack College and a Master of Divinity from New York Theological Seminary. She is currently a Doctor of Ministry candidate at New York Theological Seminary.

Her career with the US ARMY highlights a commitment of 27 years of service, retiring as Command Sergeant Major on August 7, 2007.

Her career with MTA New York City Transit Authority highlights a commitment of 26 years of service, retiring as Director, Customer Advocate & ADA Compliance on May 1, 2017.

CSM Suggs joined the National Associates of Black Military Women, Brooklyn Chapter, in March 2019. Her love and passion for sharing the "Good News & Love is for Everyone" of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, along with doing community outreach through volunteer service, started at an early age. She is an Ordained & Licensed Interfaith Reverend in Unity Fellowship Church Movement, a Social Justice Ministry & One Spirit Interfaith Alliance Seminary. She serves with the Ecclesia Ministries – Marcus Garvey Park street ministry and on the Housing Works, Inc. HealthCare Board of Directors.

Annie credits all her achievements to God. Her most crowning achievement is blessed to be the mother to her son William Suggs, Sr., and his wife, Elizabeth, and Grandmother to her three (3) wonderful grandchildren, William Jr., George, & Brianna.

To God Be The Glory!
